

CHAMPIONS ENFIELD

ENFIELD'S two draws last week against Hitchin and Sutton have clinched them the Rothmans Isthmian League championship with two games left to play, both against Tooting and Mitcham. Keith Searle, Enfield's leading scorer, grabbed one of the goals at Sutton on Saturday to reverse last year's title battle when Wycombe Wanderers won by one tenth of a goal. But Enfield miss out on the £1,000 prize money for exceeding the eight penalty point limit.

Wanderers finish runners-up thanks to Dagenham's 2-0 defeat at Bishop's Stortford. They collect £500 while the Daggers pick up £300 for third place.
